

Intellectual property law

Our IP team specialises in trademark and design law, copyright, trade name law and patents. The team has experience with parallel trade in products protected by trademark and patent rights within the context of EU law.

In addition, they regularly litigate before Dutch and European courts and have extensive experience with ex parte evidence collection, preliminary injunction proceedings, including regulatory matters, intellectual property rights, and cross-border distribution.

Highlights

Defending one of Europe's largest forwarding and logistics companies before the District Court of The Hague in a case concerning the legal position of a logistics service provider under trademark law.

Assisting Spido (Rotterdam cruise company) in a trademark dispute.

Representing Altunis Trading before the Benelux Court of Justice regarding the use of Benelux trademarks of Belmond Hotel Cipriani.

"The legal support we receive is consistently of high quality. What sets this practice apart is the combination of deep legal expertise and a proactive, accessible approach."
